INTEGRITY INSURANCE ANNOUNCES UPDATES TO CLAIMS MANAGEMENT

APPLETON, WI (Oct. 17, 2017) — Integrity Insurance is excited to announce updates to the claims management team. Auto Liability Claims Manager Ryan Shepard has been named Auto Liability and Property Claims Manager. Auto Liability Claims Team Lead Amy Warhurst has been promoted to Auto Liability Claims Manager.

Shepard's new role expands his responsibilities to lead the property claims operation in addition to co-managing the auto claims division with Warhurst. Both are responsible for managing the day-to-day operations within the departments and reinforcing Integrity's strategic focus of delivering outstanding customer service.

Vice President, Claims & Sales Christian Martin stated "I'm confident Ryan's success will carry over into his new, broader role. I've witnessed firsthand his dedication to delivering excellence."

Martin added, "The addition to Amy to our claims management team is a testament to Integrity's growth. Amy's years of experience and depth of expertise in auto liability claims adds considerable strength to our team."

Shepard and Warhurst bring 12 and 11 years of experience in the insurance industry, respectively.
