Integrity Insurance adds Borgerding as commercial lines field underwriter

APPLETON, Wisconsin — Integrity Insurance has added David Borgerding as a commercial lines field underwriter for the state of Minnesota.

As a commercial lines field underwriter, Borgerding is responsible for new business production and profitability for a select group of Minnesota agents that are part of Integrity's commercial field underwriter program.

Borgerding joins Integrity from Federated Insurance in Owatonna, Minn., where he spent seven years in various roles, including business coordinator center supervisor, commercial underwriter, risk analyst and field marketing projects analyst.

Borgerding has a bachelor's degree in statistics from the University of Minnesota-Morris. He currently holds the CPCU, ARM, AU and AIS designations.
