Integrity Insurance adds Mark Fowler as commercial lines underwriting manager

Appleton, WI (October 10, 2012) – Integrity Insurance has added Mark Fowler as commercial lines underwriting manager.

In his new position, Fowler will lead the commercial underwriting team to ensure sustained growth, profit and execution of Integrity's business objectives through quality underwriting, proactive portfolio management and strong customer service.

"We are excited to have Mark join us," said Jill Stache, Integrity's commercial lines vice president. "His expertise in the commercial lines area will enhance the high level of service we provide to our agency partners."

Fowler comes to Integrity from Hastings Mutual Insurance Co. in Hasting, Mich., where he was a commercial lines underwriter before being named a large account specialist.

A native of Marquette, Mich., Fowler received bachelor's degrees in finance and business from Grand Valley State University in Grand Rapids, Mich. He also has his CIC, AU and AIS designations.
